It's Only Money?!?

What would you do or who would you be if money was not an “issue,” if you had more than enough money to cover all your expenses and live the life of your dreams? Who would you BE?

If you didn't have to associate “work” with “money” because you had several effortless streams of income flowing into your accounts, how would you choose to express yourself in the world?

If you've invested in your personal growth for any length of time, more than likely you're familiar with the law of attraction and you're aware how your beliefs affect your reality.

One person believes “nothing comes easy” and they've got to “work hard” to earn money. Guess what? They receive the evidence in their life experience to support that belief.

Another person believes “money comes easy” and they can have as much as they want. Guess what? They too receive the evidence in their life experience to support their belief.

They each get to be right, you see.

As you think, you feeeeeeel.
As you feeeeeeel, you vibrate.
As you vibrate, you *ATTRACT!

So what do you believe about the stuff we call “money?”

“Who says you have to work hard to make money...What if instead you believed that the more you laughed the more money you'd make? Either way, you get to choose.”

What if instead of believing that it took a lot of “hard work” and struggling to make a great income, you believed that making money was a simple and fun

process? What if instead of believing in “not enough,” you believed that your access to money was as unlimited as your access to air? It’s only money and there’s plenty of it :o)

Sometimes when we’re on the path of personal development and self-growth, we know these things intellectually. We know in our heads how law of attraction works. We can verb-a-lize it to others and apply it in certain areas of our lives, yet it’s generally around the “money” topic we have “resistance” and trip up. So, how do we go from “knowing” to “experiencing”?

Well, one way, is to look at our current relationship to money and if it’s not an open, free-flowing, fun relationship, then maybe...

... just maybe we can “play” with re-scripting how we relate to the stuff we call “money” :o) Sometimes that’s easier said than done, but what if there was a special place that helped you shift to this abundant space where effortless streams of money abound?

What if there was lots of evidence to support a new belief that making money could be effortless and fun? What if there were several different “pots of gold” you could literally tap into and generate income effortlessly, would you like to play there?

Would you free yourself enough to let your child-like imagination surface again? Would you allow your dreams to come forth so you could BE who you really want to BE?

You would? 😊

Good. Then let’s continue...

Work for Money vs. Money Working For You

Which of the following two scenerios feeeeeeeels better to you?

Scenerio 1: You get up and go to work. Hopefully, it’s a job you like, if not, this scenerio’s going to go downhill fast :o) So, you go to work and put in your 8 hours a day – 40 hours a week. You deal with traffic, gas, day care costs, glass-ceilings, limitations on your income and you're not in control of your time.

Where Well-Being Abounds and Making Money is Effortless & Fun.
Take The Effortless Prosperity Challenge & Enter The ZONE!

You're trading time for dollars. You put in a certain number of hours and receive compensation for such. You're only one person so you can't multiply or grow your income other than maybe getting a 2nd job or getting more education so that you can get a higher paying job. But then there's still the limitation on just how much you as one person can DO, so you're still kinda stuck.

Then what happens if your company has to start "down-sizing"? Not a good position to be in.

Scenario 2: You utilize the strategy of the wealthy and you put your money to work for you. You know that your money can grow and compound at a much faster rate than you could ever (or would ever want to) build on your own. You put your time and energy into building income-producing assets that don't need your involvement in order to continue producing more and more income. You roll out of bed when you want, vacation when you want, lose track of which day it is, and live your life on your terms. You have passive income coming in from several different sources.

Every day you wake up richer than when you went to bed because your money is always hard at work FOR you.

If you start a business or foundation, it's because it's something you enjoy doing not because you "have to" work for money and yet, your new venture turns into another tremendous income source.

"Making money can be effortless and fun or it can be hard work and struggle. Have money work for you or you work for money. Either way, you get to choose."

Given the opportunity to make a choice, which would you choose?
Neither is "right" or "wrong" per se, just different ways of thinking and doing and they each lead to very different life experiences.

Prosperity Consciousness vs. Lack Consciousness

Back to how do you relate to money...

Do you like money, really? This is a legitimate question. Some people act like they hate money.

“Does money like you?” is an even better one :o)

How do you treat your money?

Do you have fun with it or do you just stress over it?

Do you appreciate* it? ← See the quote below.

"Appreciation has two meanings: first, it means to understand and enjoy the value of something; and second, it means to grow in value. Your appreciation of what life brings you demonstrates that you comprehend the value of the thing AND it, by your appreciation actually increases the value of the thing, so that it, in turn provides you with even more value."

If you were to picture yourself wealthy and living the life of your dreams... a life you truly love, how do you see yourself? How do you carry yourself? Are you happy and confident? Do you laugh more? Are the behaviours of the “wealthy you” different in any way from how you act today?

Does the “wealthy you” screen calls in case it’s a creditor calling? Does the “wealthy you” put off paying bills because you think in terms of “not enough?” Is the “wealthy you” generous or stingy? I’d venture to say, probably not :o)

Wealthy in Mind automatically leads to Manifestation of Wealth

It’s who you are be-ing today that creates what you experience tomorrow. Begin today aligning your thoughts and actions with your highest intentions. There is no limitation in all of this Abundant Universe. Limits only exist in your mind. The more you play in the realm of Infinite Possibilities, the more you will come to know how unlimited you really are. Remember... It’s only money :o)

"Dare to challenge every limiting belief about yourself and watch the true unlimited you reveal itself."

Be OPEN to a different way of looking at things and things will begin to look differently :o)

Play with the thoughts. Take it light. Just ponder. What if...

... I never had to work for money again?

... I could spend time doing the things I enjoy?

... I could donate large sums of money to my favorite charities?

... I could take that trip to Paris (or the Carribean) I’ve always wanted?

... I was a millionaire?

Play with the thoughts until they feeeeeeeeeeel just right for you. Keep “trying on” new thoughts as you GROW and e-x-p-a-n-d your consciousness about WHO YOU ARE. Find out what your heart desires and give it to yourself in thought first!

Inner Wealth = > Outer Manifestation

Know that your job, boss, business, husband, or wife is NOT the source of your prosperity. Whether you are a doctor, teacher, engineer, student, housewife, or plumber, your job is only a channel through which money flows to you. There are unlimited channels that Source can use to flood abundance into your life. You just have to be willing to accept it :o)

Effortless Money Machines (EMMs)

What are Effortless Money Machines?

The passive programs I use and that are listed in The Zone are not “traditional” investment vehicles. I call them effortless money machines because they require “no effort” on my part to generate the returns and make me money. I loooooove that!

I make money day and night whether I’m eating, sleeping, vacationing... doesn’t matter. When I put my money to work for me, it does just that.

What I do is manage my different income streams. I decide the strategy for how I want to grow each income stream and set the plan into action. Simple stuff.

Some programs I compound my account to grow it at a faster rate while in other programs I may set it to pay out to my main account for living expenses, shopping, traveling, playing, whatever. I appreciate how hard my money works for me so I don’t have to :o)

In one of my favorite EMMs I make 1.9% per day. Most barely make that in a year at their bank.

In other one of my favorites I make 100% in 1-2 months. In one of the “slower” programs it may take 3-4 months to double my money :o)

Another one – 30% compounded per month

In a 5 month period for just one of these programs my account grew by over 423%!

Many may say that returns like these are impossible and I’ll just smile and say, “Maybe in your world. Now how about taking a peek into mine 😊.”

Below is a Snapshot of the Online Simulator For The 1.9% a day Program

This example shows an account starting with $450. It's set for a year at 100% reinvest which means all of the interest is being compounded. In the 13th month it's set for 60% to be reinvested and 40% withdrawable. Beginning in that month you could withdraw $3,813.93.

In Month 14 you could withdraw $4,587.99 and every month thereafter the amount increases.

EMM#3 Performance Summary Payment Option: Full ($450)

All amounts apply to the END of the month in which they are stated.

What if you started with more? OR What if the account was left to grow at 100% longer?

I'll just leave it to the imagination and let you ponder those thoughts :o)

Self-Appreciation

Sometimes you just have to hug yourself!

How much do you really love and appreciate YOU? Do you treat yourself well? How often do you give yourself a “love” treatment where you simply take time to focus on you by doing something you love or giving yourself permission to buy something you really want? How often do you put you on the “back-burner” so you can handle “more important” things?

Many times we neglect ourselves to take care of everything around us (especially us ladies). Always remember to take time for you, you're the most important person you know.

Love yourself enough to give you the absolute BEST! If you aren't willing to give you the best, the Universe simply follows your lead. If you have difficulty accepting “small” gifts or compliments or someone treating you to dinner, how can you be open enough to receive large sums of money that you didn't have to “work” for :o)

On Giving & Receiving...

We've all heard the saying “it's better to give than receive.” Well, in order for someone to give, someone has to be on the other end to receive. They go hand-in-hand. It's just as important that we know how to receive! You can give and give and give, but if you don't know how to receive, you will block all the good trying to get to you.

You'll effectively be saying to the Universe, “No Thank You.” Practice receiving and simply saying... thank you.

Self-appreciation & Gratitude open the floodgates of abundance. When you feeeeeeel worthy and deserving of wealth, you'll allow yourself to have it. Remember... It's only money :o)

Gratitude

That which you appreciate appreciates. It grows. It expands and you'll have more to appreciate by law of attraction.

The energy of appreciation is a very high vibration. Look at your life and find things to appreciate NOW. Being ungrateful and complaining, even though you may feel justified to do so, only gives you more to complain about. So, learn to appreciate what is as you move towards an even better tomorrow.

The Journey...

Play at Life by Following Your Joy!

I've come a long way in shifting my energy around the subject of money and I'm very grateful for where I've been and where I am now. I noticed the most change when I started to "play" at life. I literally started to laugh out loud at stuff. HA HA HA HA HA! It was forced at first, then it got easier. My husband didn't find everything I was laughing at so funny. That would make me laugh even more :o)

I now know that most of my struggle early on in my relationship with money was because I was trying to do things I didn't enjoy in order to get to the money.

Now, it's a different story. If it ain't fun, I ain't doin' it.

At one point I went on what I call a "Happy Diet" for 30 days where all I focused on were things that brought me joy. I laughed for no reason. I sang, danced. Played with my little ones. Anything to get my vibration up and keep it up. No worrying was allowed for 30 days.

Out of that immensely high vibration The Effortless Prosperity Zone was born. The ideas were flowing so fast it was hard to keep up. It still is! I've realized that my only "job" is to focus on feeling good however I have to do that and simply allow all the goodies to flow thru me.

My intention & purpose in creating The Zone is simply to help people shift their vibration around the subject of money so that it flows more easily into their lives. If I can make it fun and show evidence of "effortless" streams of money, that's a totally different vibration than someone who's used to "not having enough" or having to "struggle" just to get by. I've been in those "places" myself so I know what that feels like. I also know that just by shifting the feeling, you shift the vibration and your point of attraction. Access that vibration often enough and the magic starts to happen.

It's easier to stay in that space when you can plan and see all the different effortless streams available to you and you see others who are making lots of money. You begin to believe it's possible for you too. Doesn't take long :o)

This all lightens the energy considerably. The more I raise others, the higher I am lifted. For what we give to others, we're really giving to Self.

There's a line in the theme song of The Zone (I know, I know... a theme song?) which is the LIVE version of "I Believe" by Fantasia Barino where she's saying...

"Love's liftin' me higher. Love keeps liftin' me higher.
You ought to try it for yourself."

When you do things from the heart, from the very essence of who you are, that good comes back to you multiplied in many different ways.

So many people intellectually know how Law of Attraction works yet they're still not experiencing the level of abundance or prosperity that they would like to.

"You are a rich and creative spiritual being. You can never be less than this. You may frustrate your potential. You may identify with that which is less than what you can be. But within you now and always is the unborn possibility of a limitless experience of inner stability and outer treasure, and yours is the privilege of giving birth to it. And you will, if you can believe."
